LRA HONORS 5 RESTAURANT LEGENDS AT SUE'S COUNTRY KITCHEN IN BOSSIER CITY

METAIRIE, La.—The Louisiana Restaurant Association (LRA) is pleased to name five Restaurant Legends from Sue's Country Kitchen in Bossier City. The recipients were recognized January 23, 2012 at during the LRA Northwest Chapter's awards night at El Dorado Casino in Shreveport.

The Restaurant Legends Award recognizes the long-term dedication of employees of the restaurant industry, with 20 or more years of service at one establishment.

With more than 100 years experience at Sue's Country Kitchen, these men and women exemplify the satisfaction of making their jobs a lifelong and rewarding career. They are:

- Carrie Lewis, Cook, employed for 24 years
- Buford E. Moyers, Assistant Manager, employed for 26 years
- Glen Perry, Cook, employed for 25 years
- Jerry W. Perry, Cook, employed for 25 years
- Mary Robinson, Cook, employed for 23 years

“We hope to encourage younger workers to follow the examples that each of these special men and women have set for the industry,” said Stan Harris, president & CEO of the LRA. “It is more than evident that Sue's Country Kitchen fosters a sense of pride among their employees, promote from within and stress the importance of jobs within the industry.”
