LRA Northwest Chapter to Host Fun Shoot

METAIRIE, La.—The Northwest Chapter of the Louisiana Restaurant Association (LRA) is hosting a clay-shooting sporting event, Saturday, April 10, 2010, beginning at 8 a.m. at the Shreveport Gun Club.

The Northwest Chapter is partnering with the LSU Health Sciences Center Children's Hospital, which will receive a portion of the proceeds. Money raised will also benefit the LRA Education Foundation, which exists to provide professional development to the state's restaurant industry, promote that industry as a career choice and support state-approved foodservice programs.

Participation in the LRA Northwest Chapter Fun Shoot is available through three packages:

.12 Gauge, $1,000

- Team entry
- Shell caddy/gopher
- 20 boxes of shells
- Team lunch
- 5 hats and towels
- Station sign sponsorship

.20 Gauge, $625

- Team entry
- 5 hats and towels
- Team lunch

Single Shot Entry, $125

- Single shooter entry
- Single shooter lunch

Sponsorship opportunities are also available. To inquire and/or obtain additional information, please contact LRA Northwest Chapter Regional Director Gretchen Hamilton, (318) 741-6543 or hamilton@bellsouth.net.
